FOOD FOR THOUGHT

HAVE YOU ever read the following statement before?
An Agent for another life insurance company, but who carried ALL his personal life insurance in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J., on being asked why he did not carry at least a part of his insurance in the company for which he was selling others to insure, and it is a good one, all right, replied, "I bought all the insurance I am able to carry in the Mutual Benefit before I became a life insurance collector, and since I have become more familiar with the history of the company, its methods of handling business, its policy contracts as compared with all others, including the one which I am representing, I am sure that if the insurance policy full of OTHERS it would need no collectors, but would issue all the insurance, it is sold to insure over the country. The foregoing is disinterested, expert testimony. If you buy insurance without investigating the Mutual Benefit, you will fail to perform a duty you owe to yourself."
